CELTIC REMNANTS

Celtic Remnants by Deborah O'Toole is a novel of enduring love and betrayal set in the political turbulence of Ireland, glamour of London and the wilds of Scotland.

A young girl is shaped by horrific events that change her life forever. After Ava's brother and parents are killed by British soldiers, she vows to avenge their deaths as she picks up the pieces of her shattered world. Before she can move on, Ava falls in love with handsome nobleman David Lancaster, eldest son of a belted Earl. Their relationship ends dramatically when his family refuses to accept her. Afterward, Ava sets her life on a course of violent revenge in the name of political justice with her childhood friend, Tim O'Casey.

Unable to forget Ava, David hires a private investigator to look for her years later. When he finds her, Ava is hardened by more than a decade on the run and wants nothing to do with him. However, after being injured during an ambush in the English countryside, Ava and Tim go to David for help. He spirits them off to a remote Scottish hunting lodge to heal. Momentarily safe amidst the rugged beauty, Ava begins to wonder if she can give up her deeply-felt political beliefs to build a normal life with David.

Celtic Remnants was released by Club Lighthouse Publishing in 2019.

THE CRYPT ARTIST

A near-starving artist finds himself inspired by a group of long-dead classic painters and a quirky Irish poet in a rundown loft in SoHo, New York.

Struggling artist Luca Wolfe lives in a dilapidated warehouse loft in SoHo, New York, barely eking out a living from sales of his work. One night he begins to paint a reproduction of art from the past, but becomes too inebriated to continue. When he awakens, he finds the painting complete, but unlike the creation he began the night before.

Frequent visits from the ghost of Malachy O'Leary - a quirky Irish poet from the far distant past - convinces Luca he is on the verge of losing his mind. He hears strange music and sees lights coming from the vacant apartment Malachy used to occupy while he was alive, and soon discovers Malachy is not alone: he is often accompanied by a perpetually hissing cat, and shares his old apartment with a selection of famous artists from long ago. Luca is the only one who can see the phantom visions and hear the ghostly talk, further convincing him he is slipping into a well of insanity from which there is no return.

An unexpected windfall places Luca into a different arena, forcing him to deal with those who would take it away from him, even take his life for the circumstances he suddenly finds himself in. With the help of Malachy O'Leary and his odd stable of ghostly companions, Luca prevails. But if he cannot alter the course of his own life in the process, all he has achieved will be in vain.

The Crypt Artist by Deborah O'Toole was released by Club Lighthouse Publishing in 2020.

IN THE SHADOW OF THE KING

In the Shadow of the King by Deborah O'Toole is a fictional account of the dramatic life of Sir Francis Bryan, confidant to King Henry VIII.

Sir Francis Bryan was a man of letters who distinguished himself as a cipher, diplomat, poet, sailor and soldier. He was also knight bannerette, chevalier, Lord of the Tor Bryan, chief gentleman of the privy chamber, Lord Chief Justice of Ireland and a gifted sportsman. He lost an eye during a jousting tournament and forever after wore a rakish eye patch, which merely added to his allure.

During his time in Henry VIII's court and one of the few who escaped the King's wrath, Bryan was dubbed the "one-eyed Vicar of Hell" by the King's chief minister, Thomas Cromwell, because of his apparent lack of scruples and legendary sexual exploits. Bryan had a well-earned reputation as a self-indulgent libertine, and was said to have been a willing accomplice in the King's tangled love affairs.

Bryan's irresistible charm masked an inveterate intriguer full of barely-contained energy. He could be duplicitous, manipulative and promiscuous as well as highly articulate, ferociously witty and generous when the mood struck him. In videlicet, he was the perfect courtier. Many observers were astounded by the familiarity he used towards Henry VIII, especially in speaking his mind. However, Bryan was no creature of principle. By bending his opinions to fit the King's policy, he managed to remain in favor throughout Henry VIII's reign.

In the Shadow of the King brings to life the story of Sir Francis Bryan, as told by one of his descendants in the twenty-first century.

The book was released by Club Lighthouse Publishing in 2023.

Then one night her dreams come true. Noel is transported to another world, where healing hands work their magic on her tired body. She awakens without pain, filled with an exuberance and joy she never thought to experience again. and gave her mother forty whacks.
When she saw what she had done,
she gave her father forty-one.*

COMMUNITY GARDEN COOKBOOK

A community garden is defined as a single piece of land on which members of a community cultivate the soil in order to yield an array of fresh vegetables, plants and other produce. Some of the gardens are primarily formed to grow vegetables for food banks, while others are ultimately shared amongst members of the community.

Community gardens promote and provide healthier sustenance for those living on limited incomes and a better eating lifestyle for people in general. They also bring awareness to environmental and sustainability issues, as well as offering educational and recreational opportunities for the disabled and otherwise disenfranchised. The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) claims nearly 15% of the world's food is now grown in urban areas, with many gardens being collectively nurtured in backyards, parks, vacant lots, roof-tops and balconies.

To celebrate the successes and altruistic efforts of community gardens across the globe, Food Fare's Community Garden Cookbook offers more than 140 easy recipes for use with garden-fresh ingredients, including appetizers and snacks, beverages, breads, breakfast dishes, condiments and sauces, desserts, herbs and spices, main meals, soups and stews, and side dishes.

GLINHAVEN COOKERY

Glinhaven Cookery is a compilation of more than 45 recipes mentioned or prepared by characters in the gothic fiction novel Glinhaven by Deborah O'Toole. The cookbook is available as a free download.

Piper Hunt leaves Boston to take over her grandfather's unique curio shop in Glinhaven, Massachusetts. While adjusting to life in the quaint seaside village, she uncovers dark secrets hidden at the forbidding Glinhaven Monastery which may also unlock mysteries from her past.

Glinhaven Monastery drips with sinister eeriness, especially at night when bone-chilling fog rolls in from churning North Shore sea waters. The centuries-old stone structure appears as a hulking ghost in the mist, its walls bloated with history and unspeakable secrets. Yellow light from carriage-style lamps intensify the monastery's forbidding effect, the black-squared globes positioned in four-foot intervals on massive walls which surround the holy nucleus, gazed upon in deadly fear by residents of Glinhaven Village . . .

Because many of the residents of Glinhaven Village are of Scottish descent, their food often reflects their heritage with age-old but tried-and-true recipes, handed down for generations.

Taste Cam MacDevitt's uniquely original bacon meatloaf and Piper Hunt's luscious Boston Egg Salad, or her quick and easy spaghetti sauce.

Sample local fare at Glinhaven Village's harbor-side eateries known as Purdy's Cafe and Delaney's Burger Hub, or the Crow's Nest Lodge. Their specialties include Cape Codder, Crab Cakes, New England Clam Chowder, Double Mushroom Burgers and homemade French Fries.

Or hire the new catering company Rudeigin Bòidheach (translated from Scots-Gaelic into Something Delicious) for a delectable food array with Baps, Clapshot, Clootie Dumpling, Mince & Tatties and Scotch Trifle.

If lucky enough to be invited by Lady Glinhaven, enjoy an elegant yet somehow ominous repast at the Glinhaven mansion ("Is it poisoned?" Piper wonders), including tea service or a sumptuous dinner with Atholl Brose, Cucumber Sandwiches, Dundee Cake, Lamingtons, Lobster Bisque, Pan-Fried Crusted Sole, Potted Shrimp, Red Velvet Cake, Rumbledthumps and Tweed Kettle.

The monks at the Glinhaven Monastery are also known to be excellent chefs, with a flair for the unusual as well as the ordinary. They produce their own homemade baked goods (Challah and Manchet breads, coffee cakes, bagels, breadsticks, cinnamon rolls and farmhouse loaves, among others), along with simple fare such as Biscuits & Gravy, Ham & Beans and Shepherd's Pie.

The Cats of Glinhaven: Recipes for Felines

The resident Scottish Fold felines at the monastery have their favorite meals as well, painstakingly prepared for them by Brother Albert Michaels and Brother Brian MacBee. Try the homemade recipes for Beefy Cat Dinner, Corny Cat Biscuits, Fish Custard, Kiki Kedgerree, and Turkey & Rice. Not to be outdone, Moggy Malone and Sith Mochrie from The Thistle Curio Shop also have their favorite nom-nom's, including Chicken & Cheese, Fish Balls, Sardine Chicken and Trout Pate.

Glinhaven Cookery is available as a free download.

LARKIN COMMUNITY COOKBOOK

The Larkin Community Cookbook is a compilation of more than 190 recipes mentioned or prepared by characters in the fictional epic known as the Collective Obsessions Saga. The nine-part series of fiction novels chronicles the extraordinary loves and intricate obsessions between two families sweeping a span of more than 150 years, all set against the backdrop of a Gothic seaside mansion in Maine.

Fictional foodstuff begins with the first family chef Claude Mondoux, and carries on with the ill-fated Nicholas Bertrand, the much-beloved Mae Jensen and the drunken Cora Ann Hogan. The diabolical Amber Whale executive chef Jack Sansovino is also a dab hand in the kitchen, where he brews more than just seafood specialties.

Various members of the Larkin family have culinary talent as well, including Shannon, Derek and Dana, who prepare mouth-watering dishes for family and friends. Derek also becomes a professional chef and opens his own elegant restaurant in Larkin City, known as The Silver Tassel. Before her grisly demise, Carly O'Reilly whips up delectable dishes for her highly successful Harbor View Catering Company, where she also sells homemade foodstuffs. Bad seed Alexandra Cimarelli is also surprisingly talented in the kitchen, where she prepares Baked Macaroni & Cheese, Chicken Cordon Bleu and Homemade Soft Pretzels.

QUIRKY SNACKS COOKBOOK

Food Fare's Quirky Snacks Cookbook contains more than 60 snack recipes from Avocado English Muffins to Yalanchi (Iraqi rice-stuffed tomatoes).

Everyone has a favorite snack. Some nibbles are fairly common, while others are quirky and unique to the person consuming them. One of my "guilty pleasure" snacks is creamy peanut butter on a spoon. Three or four teaspoons put a smile on my face, usually in mid-afternoon. I call it a "guilty pleasure" as I liken it to someone drinking milk straight from the carton and returning it to the refrigerator without telling anyone else. Rest assured I'm a bit more fastidious. I make sure no one else uses my peanut butter jar to keep from spreading germs.

Some of my other favorite "quirky" snacks include baked artichokes, roasted pine nuts, pumpkin seeds, sunflower seeds, and oddest of all, raw ramen noodles from the package. My teeth have taken a beating over the years because of my crunchy preferences. However, it was simple yet sheer bliss while it lasted.

Enjoy Quirky Snacks from Food Fare. You might glean an idea or two. Who knows? You may even find your next favorite snack!

RECIPES-ON-A-BUDGET COOKBOOK

Food Fare's Recipes-on-a-Budget Cookbook features more than 150 recipes for inexpensive meals, including breakfast, lunch, dinner, side dishes, beverages and snacks.

The current economic climate has forced many households to trim their food budgets. Families either do without, or find ways to stretch ingredients in multiple dishes with inexpensive fillers. Ironically, as many also go without health insurance, they are forced to purchase "cheap" foods that are often unhealthy in order to feed their families. It doesn't have to be that way. With a little pre-planning, such as coupon-clipping and opting to buy generic brands, healthy food can be prepared to go a long way without exceeding the weekly budget.

Not all dishes contained in the Recipes-on-a-Budget Cookbook are health-strict, but they are nutritious for the most part and affordable.
