ABOUT "IN THE SHADOW OF THE KING"

In the Shadow of the King by Deborah O'Toole is a semi-fictional account of the dramatic life of Sir Francis Bryan, confidant to King Henry VIII.

Sir Francis Bryan was a man of letters who distinguished himself as a cipher, diplomat, poet, sailor and soldier. He was also knight bannerette, chevalier, Lord of the Tor Bryan, chief gentleman of the privy chamber, Lord Chief Justice of Ireland and a gifted sportsman. He lost an eye during a jousting tournament and forever after wore a rakish eye patch, which merely added to his allure.

During his time in Henry VIII's court and one of the few who escaped the King's wrath, Bryan was dubbed the "one-eyed Vicar of Hell" by the King's chief minister, Thomas Cromwell, because of his apparent lack of scruples and legendary sexual exploits. Bryan had a well-earned reputation as a self-indulgent libertine, and was said to have been a willing accomplice in the King's tangled love affairs.

Bryan's irresistible charm masked an inveterate intriguer full of barely-contained energy. He could be duplicitous, manipulative and promiscuous as well as highly articulate, ferociously witty and generous when the mood struck him. In videlicet, he was the perfect courtier. Many observers were astounded by the familiarity he used towards Henry VIII, especially in speaking his mind. However, Bryan was no creature of principle. By bending his opinions to fit the King's policy, he managed to remain in favor throughout Henry VIII's reign.

In the Shadow of the King brings to life the story of Sir Francis Bryan, as told by one of his descendants in the twenty-first century.

The book was released by Club Lighthouse Publishing in July 2023.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE OF SIR FRANCIS BRYAN

Factual milestones are mixed with fictional events as historical references were not exact or consistent during extensive research, particularly those involving certain figures from history.

❖ 1st June 1490

Francis Bryan is born to Sir Thomas Bryan and the former Margaret Bouchier in Cheddington, Buckinghamshire, England. He has an elder sister, Margaret (also known as Meg, born 1489), and a younger sister, Elizabeth (born 1500). His parents were both courtiers in the royal court. As such, Francis Bryan was probably acquainted with Prince Henry, who was just a year younger. It is likely they became friends at an early age. For storyline proposes, Francis and Henry briefly played together at Windsor Castle as children with Charles Brandon (later Duke of Suffolk, son of Sir William Brandon, Henry VII's standard-bearer at the Battle of Bosworth Field), Nicholas Carew (son of Sir Richard Carew, Captain of Calais), and William Compton (Prince Henry's page).

❖ 28th June 1491

❖ 7th January 1536

Catherine of Aragon, Henry VIII's first wife, dies at Kimbolton Castle in Cambridgeshire.

❖ 29th January 1536

Anne Boleyn suffers a miscarriage. Henry VIII sees it as clear evidence of God's displeasure with the marriage. He determines to end the union with Anne so he can marry Jane Seymour.

❖ January 1536

Sir Francis Bryan distances himself from the Boleyn family and begins to champion the Seymour family.

❖ Spring 1536

Thomas Cromwell begins collecting evidence against Anne Boleyn. During the course of his investigations, he hears certain members of court were admitted to her chamber at late hours. Those named were George Boleyn, Henry Norris, Francis Weston, William Brereton and Mark Smeaton. Cromwell constructs a case against Anne, claiming she committed adultery with all five men had plotted to murder the King. Sir Francis Bryan is questioned during the investigations but is not charged.

❖ 2nd May 1536

Anne Boleyn is arrested and taken by barge to the Tower of London.

❖ 14th May 1536

Thomas Cromwell refers to Sir Francis Bryan as "The Vicar of Hell" in a letter to Stephen Gardiner. He gains the nickname for his reputation of impiety and of taking pleasure wherever he found it.

❖ 19th May 1536

Anne Boleyn is executed (beheaded) at the Tower of London. She is buried in the choir of the royal chapel of St. Peter ad Vincula.

❖ 20th-22nd May 1536

❖ 24th October 1537

Jane Seymour dies twelve days after giving birth to Prince Edward. She is buried in St. George's Chapel at Windsor Castle.

❖ 1537

Sir Francis Bryan is sent on a secret mission to Paris to assassinate Cardinal Reginald Pole. The plot fails after Pole is tipped off, possibly by Bryan himself.

❖ 1538

Sir Francis Bryan is sent to France as ambassador to the court of Francis I. However, after the French complain about his inappropriate behavior (gambling, drinking and womanizing), he is recalled to England.

❖ 3rd March 1539

Sir Nicholas Carew, Sir Francis Bryan's brother-in-law, is beheaded at the Tower of London for treason.

❖ 16th March 1539

Edward Woodgate dies, leaving his wife, Baroness Alice Drury, a wealthy landowner in Bury St. Edmunds, Suffolk.

❖ 6th January 1540

❖ 12th July 1543

Henry VIII marries Catherine Parr at Hampton Court Palace.

❖ October 1543

Sir Francis Bryan is sent to the court of Charles V, Holy Roman Emperor, as ambassador.

❖ 17th July 1546

Lady Elizabeth Carew, Sir Francis Bryan's younger sister, dies.

❖ 28th January 1547

Henry VIII dies at Whitehall Palace, his last words reportedly being: "Bryan, all is lost." His nine-year-old son becomes King Edward VI. Francis is assigned the chief place as "Master of the Henchmen" at Henry VIII's funeral. Henry had fondly referred to Francis as his "one-eyed Vicar of Hell" (a term first coined by Thomas Cromwell), which might be interpreted as meaning one of unquestioned loyalty. (Source: Roots Web).

❖ September 1547

Sir Francis Bryan is created Knight Banneret by Edward VI.

❖ 22nd April 1548

John Bryan Elwell, illegitimate son of Sir Francis Bryan and Abigail Elwell, dies in England, unmarried and childless.

❖ July 1548

Francis Bryan travels to Bury St. Edmunds, Suffolk to see Alice Woodgate, Baroness Drury. It will be their final meeting. He tells her he is about to marry for the second time - for political purposes only - and she wishes him well.

❖ 1st August 1548

Sir Francis Bryan marries Joan Fitzgerald Butler, widow of James Butler (Earl of Ormonde), daughter of James Fitzgerald, 10th Earl of Desmond. The marriage brings him money and control of land in Ireland.

❖ November 1548

Sir Francis Bryan is created Lord Marshal of Ireland by Edward VI.

❖ 11th June 1549

Francis Bryan II, son of Sir Francis Bryan and Joan Butler, born at Butler Castle, Clonmel, Ireland. Christened 18th June 1549 at St. Patrick's Chapel, Clonmel.

❖ 27 December 1549

Sir Francis Bryan is created Lord Chief Justice of Ireland by Edward VI.

❖ 2nd February 1550

Sir Francis Bryan dies at Butler Castle in Clonmel, Ireland. Because Joan Butler's first husband died mysteriously (hints of poison), Bryan's death is suspect but cannot be proven. A postmortem examination was ordered to determine the cause of death; there was no finding of poisoning. It was said that he "died of grief." Sir John Allen, the Irish Chancellor, was present at the death of Francis and at the autopsy. He stated: "He departed very godly." While Francis lay on his deathbed, his wife Joan went hunting with Gerald Fitzgerald along the bounds of Leinster, visited Askeaton Castle, and accompanies her lover to fairs and festivals.

Burial: County Waterford, Ireland. Sir Francis Bryan was said to be buried 25 miles from where he died. His stone marker was removed from the 12th-century church when the church was demolished in 1773. (Source: Roots Web). Other historical notes suggest Francis was buried at St. Mary's Church in Oldbridge, Clonmel, County Tipperary, Ireland. For In the Shadow of the King storyline purposes, Sir Francis Bryan's burial place is near St. Patrick's Chapel in Clonmel, Ireland.
