

LARKIN-SULLIVAN FAMILY TREE

Fictional family tree for characters in the Collective Obsessions Saga by Deidre Dalton

*Trapped incandescent swirls; like raptly churning ocean waves.
Through milky, translucent pearls
and collective misty mind caves.
Kith and kin disavow as one;
twelve decades and seven of obsessive love.
No one has forgotten, and no one has won;
and yet forever dwell spellbound thereof.*

ABOUT "COLLECTIVE OBSESSIONS"

Deidre Dalton (aka Deborah O'Toole) is author of the ten-part Collective Obsessions Saga, which chronicles the extraordinary loves and intricate obsessions between two families sweeping a span of more than 150 years, all set against the backdrop of a Gothic seaside mansion in Maine.

Follow the twists and turns of the Larkin and Sullivan families, who settle in America in the mid-1800s. John Larkin builds his vast business empire while daughter Molly and lighthouse keeper Colm Sullivan establish a connection that will endure for generations. Amidst murder, madness, perverse self-indulgence and avarice the two families struggle to free themselves from a dark legacy of secrets and obsessions.

Collective Obsessions is a unique family saga set in the combined genres of mystery, paranormal and romance, all dotted with the macabre and hints of classic Gothicism.

Buried at Larkin City Cemetery, Larkin City, Maine

Partners & Children:Partner 1 - Michael "Mick" Sullivan 30 Jun 1881-1945 (twin to Johnny Sullivan)

Married on 1905 at St. Patrick's Church, Larkin City, Maine

Child 1- Jean-Claude Sullivan 4 Nov 1907-1 May 1985Grandchild:George Sullivan (Ben Webb) 15 Mar 1932-Ancestors:

Father - Nigel Barton-Brooks 1850-1930

Mother - Clea Pettibone 1855-1914

Minutiae: Layla had a head full of dark curls with pale skin and a delicate physique. Despite her outer frailty, she was a strong, independent woman with many opinions of her own. She did not view her husband, Mick Sullivan, as her lord and master.

Nigel Barton-Brooks

Gender: M

Born: 10 February 1850, London, England

Occupation: Butler at Larkin Mansion from 1871 to 1930

Died: 29 January 1930, Larkin City, Maine

Buried at Larkin City Cemetery, Larkin City, Maine

Partners & Children:

Partner 1 - Clea Pettibone (Clea Barton-Brooks) 1855-1914

Married 1873 at Larkin House, Larkin City, Maine

Child 1- Layla Barton-Brooks 1878-1956

Grandchild:

Jean-Claude Sullivan 1907-1985

Minutiae: Nigel arrived in Maine from England in 1871, when he began working as John Larkin's butler at the family mansion. Nigel was slender with black hair and dark blue eyes. He appeared diminutive, but was unswervingly faithful to his employer, regarding his duties as butler sacrosanct. Nigel did much of John's "dirty work," such as spying on Molly and Colm when they met in secret at the lighthouse keeper's cottage. Age finally prevented Nigel from carrying out his duties in 1924, but he was allowed to stay on rent-free at the Larkin mansion until his death in 1930.

Gender: F

Born: 3 Feb 1896, Munich, Bavaria, Germany

Occupation: Journalist

Died: 15 May 1985, Paris, France

Buried at Montparnasse Cemetery, Montparnasse, Paris, France

Notes:

Death by suicide (pill overdose two weeks after death of partner Jean-Claude Sullivan)

Partners & Children:

Partner 1 - Jean-Claude Sullivan 1907-1985

Notes: Common-law partner of Jean-Claude Sullivan from 1934-1985

Minutiae: Mason was of medium height and build, with thick chestnut-colored hair and brown eyes. He dressed nattily, possessed several effeminate traits and provided an endless stream of humorous bitchery. Many considered him to be a harmless powder-puff. Mason lived with Jean-Claude Sullivan for fifty-one years (1934-1985). His claim to fame was a blue novelette titled Amour Interdit ("Forbidden Love"), published in 1943. The book was a scathingly honest portrayal of two women deeply in love. Mason reversed the gender in his fictional account, but the words, actions and love scenes were purely Jean-Claude and Mason. The novel sold well despite its scandalous content, and could be found in fashionable as well as backstreet book shops. It made Mason the toast of the underbelly for quite some time, a role he relished with great aplomb.

Nicholas Bertrand (no relation; honorary mention)

Gender: M

Occupation: Larkin Family Chef

Born: 19 Dec 1890, Paris, France

Died: 31 Oct 1947, Larkin City, Maine

Buried at Larkin City Cemetery, Larkin City, Maine

Notes: Murdered by Patrick Larkin

Partners & Children:

Partner 1 (love affair) – Colleen McGarren Larkin 1901-1962

Love affair, 1935-1947

Minutiae: Nicholas was tall and spare of frame with black hair that fell in natural curls to his shoulders. He had bright blue eyes and extraordinarily pale skin. His lips were overly full and sensuous, and his nose was long and slender, slightly flaring at the tip. Nicholas had the best from both his parents: an Irish mother and a French father. Despite his attractive and unusual appearance, Nicholas was quietly strong-willed, diplomatic and clever with a pronounced masculine edge. He was born in Paris and raised in Dublin, Ireland. He moved to Boston in 1911, where he worked as head chef at the Florentine Café on Beacon Hill. Nicholas began working for Larkin's in the spring of 1926 and later became Colleen Larkin's lover.

Partner 2 – John Larkin 1829-1926

Lovers from 1875-1926

Grandchild:

Linda Bisiker Sullivan 1937-2004

Great-grandchildren:

Michael (Mike) Sullivan 1956-1975

Sara Sullivan 1961-1995

Minutiae: Lizbeth was beautiful, with auburn hair, clear skin, pale green eyes and a voluptuous figure. She became the owner of the Amber Whale Tavern in Larkin City after her husband Edward died in a carriage accident in 1875. She became John Larkin's mistress shortly afterward, a union that would endure until his death. Lizbeth saw John's wife Anne as "weak and ineffectual" while Anne saw Lizbeth as "vulgar and unrefined." Anne died in 1889. Lizbeth moved into the Larkin mansion when John suffered a stroke in 1908, remaining after his death in 1926 and until her own demise in 1929.

Quinton Edward Cabot (aka Quint Cabot; no relation)

Gender: M

Occupation: Chemist/Perfumer

Born: 19 Nov 1993, New York City, New York

Notes: Close friend to Alexandra St. John Cimorelli

Ancestors:

Father - Adam Cabot 1958-

Mother - Lacey Astor Cabot 1965-

Minutiae: Quint's mother, Lacey Astor Cabot, inherited family money, while his father Adam was a software engineer. They lived in a brownstone on Upper East Side in New York City. Quint was tall and slender with dark hair, dark brown eyes and a slightly enlarged nose. He was quiet and studious, receiving his BA in chemical engineering from New York University in 2015. Quint's singular focus was on his work as a chemist, but he also became obsessed with Alexandra St. John Cimorelli and was prepared to do anything for her.

Per Wikipedia: A perfumer is an expert on creating perfume compositions, sometimes referred to affectionately as a nose (French: nez) due to their fine sense of smell and skill in producing olfactory compositions.

Gender: M

Occupation: Attorney

Born: 4 Apr 1969, Greenwich, Connecticut

Died: 8 Sep 2007, Larkin City, Maine

Buried at Larkin City Cemetery, Maine

Notes: Death by suicide. Luke threw himself from the Banshee Point Lighthouse to the rocks below when it was discovered he was Larkin City's serial killer.

Partner:

Partner 1 - Megan Larkin 1 Jan 1985-

Married 29 October 2006, Banshee Point Winery, Larkin City, Maine

Ancestors:

Father - Esteban Castaneda (1949-1975; killed in Vietnam)

Mother - Mariella Castaneda (1951-1977)

Minutiae: Luke had a troubled childhood. His father Esteban Castaneda was killed in Vietnam (1975), after which his mother Mariella became a prostitute and drug addict. Luke was placed into foster care at the age of seven, shortly after his mother died in 1977. Luke became an attorney, graduating from Harvard on a scholarship. He worked at the DA's office in Boston from 1999-2004, where he prosecuted rape and murder cases. Luke moved to Larkin City in December 2004, opening a private practice in the old Larkin Mines building on Main Street. Luke was strikingly handsome with straight, well-clipped black hair and brown eyes. His favorite cologne was Cool Water.

Ancestors:

Father - Kevin Patrick O'Larkin 1800-1847
 Mother - Rachel Garrity 1810-1836

Minutiae: John Larkin was the founder of Larkin City, Maine. He had raven-black hair with sideburns, a cleft in his chin, and azure blue eyes. He was tall (6'4"), and muscular from hard-working physical activity. He was an intense, charming man used to getting his own way and not above manipulating others to get what he wanted. John possessed an iron will, acute intelligence, manic drive and ferocious ambition. He enjoyed extraordinary good health for many years, but a stroke in 1908 confined him to a wheelchair until his death in 1926. John had an affair with Amber Whale Tavern owner Lizbeth Bisiker; she lived at the Larkin mansion after his stroke.

Sibling:

Roderick "Roddy" Larkin 1859-1946

Minutiae: Molly had dark eyes, which slanted slightly at the corners. She was small-boned and dainty, with alabaster, milky skin and a flawless physical beauty. As she matured, she developed an exotic air of mystery and exceptional breeding. However, she was blunt in conversation and often whistled like a man. She was mostly mercurial and self-centered. She hated her mother Anne Larkin, but adored her father John. Molly gives up her twin children to their father Colm Sullivan, and then hibernates in the attic of the Larkin mansion, where she becomes morose, introspective and addicted to laudanum.

Sibling:

Mary Margaret (Molly) Larkin 1864-1886

Minutiae: Roddy was tall with light brown hair, pale skin and azure blue eyes, resembling his father John Larkin to a large degree. Roddy was fair-minded and patient, driven to business and growing the Larkin empire even larger. He marries New York socialite Sascha McShane in 1881, but only after she threatens to expose the affair between his sister Molly and Colm Sullivan. Roddy and Sascha eventually settle into married life, growing quite fond of one another.

Minutiae: Dana has been Shannon Larkin's best friend since high school. She brought Shannon together with Mike Sullivan, which she sadly regretted thereafter. Small with raven-black hair and blue eyes, Dana was plain but with pleasant features. She was rather promiscuous before marrying Shannon's twin brother Sean in 1981. However, she soon settled into a happy, privileged life with the Larkin family and took great pleasure in being a mother to twins Derek and Diana, and stepmother to Brose. Dana also took over Harbor View Catering when Carly O'Reilly died in 1995.

Minutiae: Phoebe was well ahead of her time. In an era when women did not enter into business ventures of their own, she opened the dress shop Phoebe's Boutique in Larkin City in 1920. Not only was Phoebe outspoken and gregarious, she was independent and highly self-sufficient, wildly spontaneous and passionate. She had a fresh loveliness with light brown hair and green eyes. Despite her closeness to her sister Colleen, Phoebe had an affair with Colleen's husband Patrick Larkin from 1925-26. Later, Phoebe became engaged to Dr. Niles Wharritt, but he was tragically killed before they could marry in an auto accident after his brakes mysteriously failed during a rain storm. Phoebe sold her dress shop in 1958, moving to the Larkin mansion to care for her sister Colleen, who suffered a stroke following the discovery of Patrick's old love letters to Phoebe.

Zachary McShane (1869-1952)

Minutiae: Sascha was the middle daughter of prominent New York publisher Elliot McShane, who wanted one of his own to marry into a wealthy, socially acceptable family. Unbeknownst to all, Elliot beat his wife and children regularly; he also sexually molested Sascha and her older sister Chantal. Although he perceives the Larkin family as "shanty" Irish, Elliot is anxious for one of his daughters to marry John Larkin's son Roddy. Sascha, a delicately silver-blond beauty with pale blue eyes, blackmails Roddy Larkin into marriage with knowledge of Colm and Molly's illicit affair in order to escape her father Elliot. Sascha was quick, often sharp tongued, intelligent, defiant and stubborn. Her marriage to Roddy Larkin eventually develops into a deep and abiding love that lasts their lifetimes.

Notes: Came to Larkin, Maine from France in 1875.

Ancestors:

Claude was the illegitimate issue resulting from an affair between his mother and a married businessman; Claude never knew his father.

Father - François Durand 1806-1899

Mother - Ysabel Amelot Mondoux 1826-1874

Minutiae: Claude was an unusual and striking figure of a man. Tall and slender, he had blond hair and blue eyes, with a stylish gold earring studding his left earlobe. He was energetic, forthright, effervescent, naturally friendly and slightly effeminate, but not the least bit subservient. Claude worked as a chef at the Auberge du Bois Café & Chateau in France before coming to Larkin City in 1875 after the death of his mother. John Larkin found him at the Amber Whale Tavern, and hired him on the spot. John nicknamed Claude "my frog" as the years progressed. Claude had his own suite of rooms inside the Larkin mansion, located just off the massive kitchen. He became a close and dear friend to Colm Sullivan, the two of them sharing many secrets. When Claude died in 1936 he was buried in the Larkin Family Cemetery, the only "servant" to be so honored.

Ancestors:

Paternal Grandfather - Patrick O'Connor 1860-1927

Minutiae: Jennifer O'Connor truly loved her husband Jean-Claude Sullivan when they first married in 1927, but after a succession of miscarriages and bouts of severe depression, she grew to hate him. After the birth of their son George in 1932, Jean-Claude spent an increasing amount of time away from home, often in the company of his co-worker Mason Berger. Jennifer was disgusted by her husband's behavior, and was not sorry to see him leave Larkin City for Paris. In later years, Jennifer was fiercely protective of her son George. She even went as far as to interfere in his relationship with Susan O'Reilly with life-altering consequences. Jennifer liked a good glass of whiskey and her large collection of cat statues.

Ancestors:

Father - Dary O'Quinn 1804-1894

Mother - Fiona Fitzgerald 1814-1840

Sibling:

Maeve O'Quinn 1836-1855

Minutiae: Anne was the second choice of John Larkin after her sister Maeve died in 1855. Tall and big-boned, Anne had golden brown hair with dark coal eyes, thin lips and pale skin. She often bemoaned her unusually large feet. She had a natural reserve, with a touch of melancholy. She was highly paranoid and insecure in her later years, which drove her to consume large amounts of alcohol in order to cope. Anne resented the closeness between her daughter Molly and John Larkin, but she adored her son Roddy.

Mother - Maria Amaretto 1910-1955

Minutiae: Scott was tall with dark hair, cat-green eyes, olive-skin, finely-chiseled but sometimes scowling features and high cheekbones. He fell hard for Shannon Larkin when he came to Larkin City to work for her father Brian. She was doubtful at first, but grew to love him as deeply as she would ever love anyone. When Mike Sullivan escapes Bangor Mental Hospital and kidnaps Shannon, Scott finds them in a cave at Seal Harbor. Scott shoots and kills Mike, ending the obsession once and for all. Scott and Shannon's long marriage was a passionately happy one, shared by their children Angie and Jamie. The anguish at Scott's loss some thirty-one years later turns to betrayal and rage when Shannon finds love letters written to her husband by another woman.

Minutiae: Désirée was short and plump with blue-black hair, an ivory complexion, dark blue oval-shaped eyes and a pouting mouth. Rather promiscuous, she underwent three abortions by the time she was twenty-five years old. All of that changed when she met Jamie Page. Désirée fell in love with Jamie Page on sight, undeterred that he was gay. After whispers about Jamie's sexual orientation begin making the rounds in Larkin City, she agrees to marry him in name only to protect his reputation. On the night of his father Scott Page's funeral, Jamie gets drunk and makes love to Désirée. Their son Gabriel is born nine months later, lightening both their lives. Désirée is content to remain Jamie's wife in name only, even if it means remaining chaste for the rest of her life.

Minutiae: Jack was a loathsome character. His mother named him after Jacopo d'Antonio Sansovino, an Italian sculptor and architect known best for his works around the Piazza San Marco in Venice. A frenetic gambler, Jack wiggled out of serious trouble with several loan sharks by allowing them to rape his boss Carly O'Reilly after he lured her to his apartment. Later, he charmed his way into the bed of Jamie Page, Shannon Larkin's only son. Jack raped and beat Jamie after a drunken argument, forcing him to flee the country. Jack's reign of terror didn't end there, however, as he returned to Larkin City to demand money from his sister Désirée, who by then was Jamie's wife, but instead found his own swift justice.

Ancestors:

Father - Alexander St. John 1938-2015

Mother - Cora Ann Hogan 1939-

Minutiae: Andrea was a rather coarse woman, tall with short, dirty blonde hair and brown eyes, and a nose that was long and wide. She always wore coal-black eyeliner, which did little to enhance her features. She was dishonest and manipulative, seeing an opportunity in Scott Page that would allow her to garner a fortune. Andrea skipped town after she lost a court case against Scott's estate, failing to intimidate his widow Shannon and the formidable Larkin family, also leaving behind her young daughter, Alexandra.

Paternal grandfather - Michael (Mick) Sullivan 1881-1945

Paternal grandmother - Layla Barton-Brooks 1878-1956

Minutiae: George was intelligent and manipulative, but even-tempered with a preference for solitude. He changed name to Ben Webb in 1961, wanting to disassociate himself from both the Sullivan and Larkin families. He returned to Larkin City in 1983, desiring a reunion with his family – most especially his children.

Born: 30 Jun 1881, Larkin City, Maine

Died: 9 Apr 1945, Larkin City, Maine

Buried at Larkin City Cemetery, Larkin City, Maine

Notes: Twin to John (Johnny) Sullivan.

Partners & Children:

Partner 1 - Layla Barton-Brooks (Layla Sullivan) 1878-1956

Married 1905, Larkin City, Maine

Child 1- Jean-Claude Sullivan 1907-1985

Grandchildren:

George Sullivan (Ben Webb) 15 Mar 1932-

Ancestors:

Father - Colm Sullivan 1860-1933

Mother - Molly Larkin 1864-1886

Paternal grandfather - Michaleen Sullivan 1841-1879

Paternal grandmother - Eibhlín Sullivan 1843-1879

Maternal grandfather - John Larkin 1829-1926

Maternal grandmother - Anne O'Quinn (Anne Larkin) 1834-1889

Siblings:

John Sullivan (Johnny) 1881-1886

Aidan Sullivan 1886-1976

Minutiae: Mick resembled his father Colm Sullivan to a large degree. In 1905, Mick married Layla Barton-Brooks (daughter of first Larkin mansion butler Nigel Barton-Brooks). Mick takes over lighthouse keeper duties at Banshee Point, but when the lighthouse automates in 1927 he operates the schooner Lady Banshee for the Larkin Harbor Tour Company.

Paternal grandfather - Jean-Claude Sullivan 1907-1985

Paternal grandmother - Jennifer O'Connor 1911-1990

Maternal grandfather - Adam Bisiker 1858-1951

Siblings:

Carly O'Reilly (Carly Larkin) 1949-1995

Sara Sullivan 1961-1995

Minutiae: Mike was tall with blue-eyes and ash-blond hair. He closely resembled his great-great-great-grandfather Colm Sullivan, with a strikingly perfect face, eyes spaced closed together, dark lashes and a pale complexion. Mike was a happy and bright child, but his obsession with Shannon Larkin turned him into a morose, violent monster. Even after his death, Mike continued to haunt Shannon in more ways than one.

CREDITS

Much thanks to Fam-Tree software. Without it, I wouldn't have been able to create the Larkin-Sullivan Family Tree. The software, along with a text spreadsheet, also helped me organize and keep consistent technical relationships between fictional characters through the generations, along with images, historical notations, birthdates, marriage/divorce dates, death dates, and other pertinent information. The most handy tool in the software was the "find relationship with" feature, which allowed me to click on one name in the family tree and find his/her relationship with any other name on the list in an instant.

IMAGES:

Character images were obtained from online open source projects, most notably Wikipedia, most of which are included in public domain. They were then altered into pastel-type illustrations using the software program Smart Photo Editor. The images represent the author's fictional characterizations, or rather the "outer shell" of each character, but are not indicative of true personality traits of actual people.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Deidre Dalton is author of the Bloodline Trilogy, which follows the uniquely magical journey of three women through time. Books in the trilogy include Bloodfrost, Bloodlust and Blood & Soul.
